DISLOCATED WORKER PROGRAM

The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) Dislocated Worker program helps workers who have lost their jobs as the result of a layoff or closure.

Client Services Managers are available to meet with you to assess your skills and employment situation and help you navigate services designed to help you transition back into the workforce as quickly and smoothly as possible.

Services available may include:

- Career exploration
- Labor market information
- Resume writing
- Information about training providers
- Out of area job search
- Relocation assistance
- Uniform and equipment needed to secure a specific job
- Short-term pre-vocational classes
- On the job training
- Retraining (up to two years) for a high demand occupation
