Source: Values have been derived from ACS 2019 5-Year Estimates from the U.S. Census Bureau and the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor 2020. The United States unemployment rate for the reference period was 8.1%. To meet the criteria for a Targeted Employment Area (TEA), the unemployment-qualifying rate must equal or exceed 150% of the national rate, which calculates as 12.15%.

Note 1: All counties, which are not located within a Metropolitan Statistical Area, are EB-5 eligible. Please see the Note 2 & 3 exceptions below.

Note 2: Cities with a population of 20,000 (incorporated places) or higher located in non-Metropolitan Statistical Area counties are not EB-5 eligible unless a census tract within the city meets the criteria for a Targeted Employment Area (the unemployment rate must equal or exceed 150% of the national rate).

Note 3: Census tracts located within a Metropolitan Statistical Area are Targeted Employment Area eligible if the unemployment rate is 150% of national unemployment rate or higher.
