It's her freshman year and AMY is rushing the most popular sorority on campus Alpha Pi Phi. The one condition that she insists on is not disclosing that she comes from a wealthy family and a long legacy of Alphas including her great grandmother who was a founding mother of the organization. Amy has been put on a pedestal her whole life and college is her first chance to finally be accepted for her character and not her family's wealth and accomplishments. What seems like a promising start is quickly undone as LIZ, the tough but beautiful queen bee of the sorority seems to have it out for Amy's natural popularity and charisma.
